

A WOMAN TESTIFIES

Here is the Help Most Women Need at Some Time in Life

Covington, Ky.—"Some years ago I was awfully run-down and nervous from feminine trouble and my physician recommended Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—told me that it was the best medicine on the market for women. Whether it is the best or not, it is the best I have found, for a few bottles helped me wonderfully and by continuing its use I was cured entirely."—Mrs. Edith Ford, 1320 Banklick St.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. A great many women in the South owe their good health of today to this famous Prescription. Get it at your drug store, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial pkg. Dr. Pierce will give you confidential medical advice free.

APPELLATE COURT KNOCKS OUT ABSENTEE VOTER LAW

The Kentucky Court of Appeals in a decision handed down Tuesday, declared the absentee voters law, passed in 1918, unconstitutional.

The law was attacked in an injunction proceeding brought by Green R. Lyons, Republican candidate for Mayor of Frankfort against County Clerk Nash, of Franklin, in an effort to compel the preparation of separate ballots for city and county elections.

The constitutionality of the law was attacked as a whole and as to section No. twenty which specifically barred absentees voting in municipal elections.

The opinion was rendered by Judge Sampson. The whole court concurred.

The law provides a means for soldiers, sailors and State and Federal employees to vote without going to their homes. Mr. Lyons contended that the absentee voters law deprived of voting for municipal officers and confined their votes to State and Federal officers.

Judge Robert L. Stout, in a decision last Friday, ruled that separate ballots could not be provided. The case then was appealed to the Court of Appeals.

Style.

Style is the result of the artist's efforts to say something, not prettily, or showily, or grandly, but clearly, completely, decisively.—George Sampson.

Keeping Books.

Leather-bound books should be kept where the air is hot and dry, and circulates freely enough to prevent the natural oil of the leather drying out too rapidly.

"Tanlac rewarded my long search for relief, and I now enjoy better health than I have in thirty years."

Many people on verge of despair have taken Tanlac and recovered. Tanlac is sold in Paris at the Peoples Pharmacy, and all leading drug stores. (adv)

EDUCATORS SUPPORT SCHOOL AMENDMENTS

The move to amend the constitution of the State in favor of better school is receiving the hearty support of the Georgetown College Faculty. During the first few weeks of the drive nearly half of the Faculty filled speaking engagements.

President Adams is making an average of two addresses every week in favor of the amendment. His last three engagements were in Richmond, Campbellsville and Winchester, Ky. And this week he will go to Brandenburg, Bowling Green, Madisonville and Murray.

Dean John L. Hill is also active at present. He will probably speak this week at Springfield.

The faculty of the college endorsed the move at their first meeting.

Enough Said.

Frequently a question contains its own answer. Such a question was the one put recently by a Kansas young woman who had failed to qualify for a position as teacher. Feeling that she had not been considerably dealt with, she wrote: "I think I am entitled to an exclamation of why I failed, anyway."—Boston Transcript.

STILL THEY TALK OF "GOOD SERVICE"

While the owner and neighbors tried to get the operator to answer any one of three telephones so that the fire department might be summoned, a barn, coal house and a third building at the home of Miss Mary Cisel, in Bowling Green were destroyed by fire originating from hot ashes dumped near one of the buildings. The operator finally answered, but not until the building had burned until they were past saving.

Why guess about it—
When you can know about it?

Suppose a guide said—

"This way there's a safe and pleasant road to your destination, with no risks or troubles on the way," and—

"That way there's a road that a good many have stalled on and turned back from, but you may get through."

Which would you take?

Postum is a thoroughly agreeable and satisfying meal-time drink, and you're sure that it's perfectly safe for health. Coffee contains drug qualities which disturb and harm the health of many.

Postum or coffee? Which road?

Why guess when you can know?

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.
